Dear Library staff -

I've been following what the library is going through during this pandemic, and hoping you are all healthy. We were in Pueblo in May but stayed away to protect us all. Even though many planned events were cancelled, we are still travelling to do what we "can" do. RV life is naturally "wild" and

Land of mysteries. A dry desert teeming with wildlife and dense plant life. And always the saguaros with arms reaching toward the blue sky. A rugged terrain beckons visitors to explore and discover. Saguaro National Park, a place to wander and wonder.

Dear Jon & staff -

We saw events/meeting rooms had been cancelled. We're in Tucson waiting out the winter. It's beautiful here in a whole different way. We plan to be in Pueblo in April before heading for
